TRIP PROFILE

We ride a total of 189 km over 4 cycling days. This bike tour is a true classic, featuring Himalayan mountain passes, sweeping descents, magnificent views, clean air, agrarian hinterlands, and abundant culture in one of the most pristine countries in the world. With a strong focus on immersing ourselves in Bhutan's rich heritage, this tour separates sightseeing from cycling, allowing us to explore key cultural sites in depth while riding at a comfortable pace, free from lengthy interruptions. Highlights include must-see sites such as Rinpung and Punakha Dzongs (medieval fortified monasteries), Buddha Point, and national heritage institutions like the Paro Museum, the Takin Preservation Center, and the Institute for Zorig Chusum. We also hike about 8 km (round trip) to the Tiger's Nest Monastery, Bhutan's most iconic landmark. Cycling takes place in the Thimphu and Punakha valleys (Days 2, 4 & 5), with the longest and hardest day (Day 3) conquering the Dochula Pass. Our valley rides are either loops or out-and-back rides from the hotels, while Day 3 is a point-to-point ride from Thimphu to Punakha. Accommodations are 3-star hotels chosen for their traditional character and convenient locations. You'll also enjoy plenty of delicious Bhutanese meals throughout the tour.

The trip is fully supported, and your guide's expert knowledge of the area and terrain means that you always know what is coming up in terms of distance and difficulty. This makes a tremendous difference, as does the constant supply of water and refreshments along the way.

Suitability: This is an active level tour and riders can expect to be challenged by the route and terrain in a variety of ways. While Bhutan is a mountainous country and there are climbs each day, the gradients generally don't get too steep (there are exceptions!). Days 2 & 4, in Thimphu and Phunaka respectively, are more leisurely afternoon rides in the valleys. Days 3 & 5, require endurance and strength, in particular the long, 18 km climb up the Dochula Pass. But the downhills are just as prominent and there are some unforgettable descents! The roads are mostly paved so there is no technical riding involved, but good handling skills to maneuver through traffic, some rough sections, and winding descents are helpful. While riders with less experience are welcome to join, a good level of physical fitness, comfort on a mountain bike, and adept handling skills enhance the enjoyment of the tour. A support vehicle is available at all times to provide refuge for weary riders.

Biking Conditions: This trip is on paved surfaces which are mostly in good condition, though broken asphalt, road debris, and potholes do present themselves regularly. While much of the route is quiet with little-traffic, Bhutan only has a few roads to speak of so be prepared to share them with other vehicles, including cars, motorbikes, and buses. Rain is not uncommon in Bhutan and this can impact road conditions. We generally ride rain or shine, but based on the guide's discretion or your level of comfort, modifications to the planned route can be made. It's all part of the adventure!

Bhutan's Unique Tourism Policy: Bhutan prides itself on its "High Value, Low Impact" tourism policy, which aims to preserve the country's cultural and natural heritage while promoting sustainable development. This policy directly influences how holidays in Bhutan are planned. Here are the key points:

- Minimum Daily Tariff: All tourists must pay a daily fee, which covers accommodation, meals, transport, and a guide.
- Sustainable Development Fee (SDF): Tourists are required to pay an additional daily fee that funds Bhutan's environmental conservation, cultural preservation, and infrastructure development.
- Mandatory Bookings: All travel arrangements, including hotel stays, must be made through a licensed Bhutanese tour operator.
- Visa Requirement: All foreign visitors (except nationals of India, Bangladesh, and the Maldives) need a visa to enter Bhutan, arranged by the tour operator.

While this may seem complex, it simply means that to visit Bhutan, you must join an organized tour. Our Bhutan cycling adventures are all-inclusive, covering the tariff and fees mentioned above. We handle all bookings and take care of your visa arrangements, ensuring a seamless experience. Please let us know if you plan to arrive in Bhutan before the tour starts or stay beyond the final day, as these arrangements will also need to be booked through us

Day 1 Meet in Paro

Welcome to Bhutan – or Druk Yul, the “Land of the Thunder Dragon” – as locals call it. Depending on your flight schedule, you will either have arrived in Paro the day before or will be arriving this morning. Either way, a pick-up from the airport is included. After lunch, we’ll begin our exploration of Paro’s must-see sites and start acquainting ourselves with Bhutan’s rich cultural heritage. At the National Museum of Bhutan, housed in a 17th-century watchtower, we’ll learn about the country’s history through art, textiles, and sculptures. We will also visit the Rinpung Dzong, the first dzong (traditional Bhutanese fortified monastery) on this journey. Adorned with intricate woodwork, towering walls, peaceful courtyards, and sacred temples, this impressive structure serves as both a religious site and a center of administration, offering insight into Bhutan’s architectural heritage. In the evening, enjoy a traditional Bhutanese welcome dinner. If you plan to arrive before the tour begins, please note that due to Bhutan’s strict tourism policies, all arrangements, including hotel stays, must be booked through a travel company. If you need assistance with booking, please let us know, and we’ll be happy to help.

Day 2 Paro - Thimphu

This morning, we transfer about two hours from Paro to Thimphu, Bhutan’s capital, nestled in the green valley of the Wang Chuu River. Despite being the capital, Thimphu retains a relaxed charm, with no traffic lights in the city centre and a strong focus on preserving Bhutan’s cultural heritage. Upon arrival, we visit Buddha Point to admire the colossal gilded Buddha statue, one of the largest in the world, overlooking the valleys and mountains. At the Takin Preservation Center, we’ll meet Bhutan’s national animal, the takin – a Himalayan bovid with the body of a goat but the face of a cow – before heading to the National Institute for Zorig Chusum to explore Bhutan’s 13 officially recognized traditional arts and crafts. After lunch, it’s time to jump in the saddle and start cycling! Our inaugural ride takes us from Thimphu north through the valley and then back again, following roads that pass terraced rice and vegetable fields, small villages, and dense pine forests. There are a few hills to tackle, but the return to Thimphu (after around 15 km) is predominantly downhill. We reconvene in the evening for dinner, and time permitting, feel free to explore the town’s renowned handicraft shops.

Day 3 Thimphu – Dochula Pass - Punakha

Today’s ride marks a rite of passage for anyone cycling in Bhutan: conquering the Dochula Pass. From Thimphu, the first 5 km are an easy warm-up as we follow the river south. Then, the climbing begins. We face 18 km of continuous uphill, with an average gradient of around 4.5%. The paved road, the only throughway between Thimphu and Punakha, winds its way up the mountainside through sprawling forests and occasional highland settlements. We take it slow and steady, with the option to switch to the support vehicle always available. At the top of the pass (3,100 meters ASL), we are greeted by 108 chortens – sacred Buddhist structures – rising into the sky. Here, we unwind, soak in the panoramic views of the eastern Himalayas, and enjoy lunch. Then, it’s downhill into the Punakha Valley, descending over 40 km on twisty mountain roads. Our ride ends at a charming hotel near the town of Punakha, the former capital of the Kingdom, where we’ll spend the next two nights.

Day 4 Punakha Valley Exploration

Today is all about the Punakha Valley, beginning with an off-saddle exploration of two of the area’s most iconic sites. First, we visit the grand Punakha Dzong, one of Bhutan’s most impressive dzongs, located at the confluence of two rivers, showcasing stunning architecture, intricate woodwork, and centuries of fascinating history. We then head to Chhimi Lhakhang, a scenic 15th-century hilltop monastery said to bless visitors with fertility and protection, adorned with colorful phallic symbols representing good fortune and the power to ward off evil spirits. After lunch, we change into our cycling gear and embark on a leisurely loop around the valley. The highlight of the ride comes after just 7 km when we cross, one at a time, a swaying metal bridge over the Puna Tsang Chu River! We then follow the river south and loop back to our hotel, surrounded by stunning views of terraced rice paddies and towering mountains.

Day 5 Punakha - Mo Chhu River Ride - Paro

Our final ride traces the Mo Chhu River, one of two rivers that converge before the Punakha Dzong. After a relatively flat 10 km warm-up, we tackle a series of uphill sections, rewarded by stunning vistas of the braided river and hillsides adorned with forests or rice paddies. As we climb, the road narrows, and the landscape grows increasingly untamed. The surrounding woodlands, renowned for their rhododendron trees, dazzle with vibrant blooms in spring or golden hues in fall. At the highest point of our ride, we pause for a picnic-style lunch, savoring the serenity and fresh air in this remote corner of the Himalayan foothills. The downhill return to Punakha offers a thrilling descent before we pack up and transfer to Paro, a three - to four-hour drive.

Day 6 Tiger's Nest Hike

We've saved Bhutan's most iconic site for last: the Tiger's Nest, or Paro Taktsang as it's known locally! Perched on a cliff at 3,120 meters ASL, this 17th-century Buddhist monastery is one of the most sacred and scenic sites in the Himalayan Buddhist world. After a 30-minute transfer from Paro, we begin the 4 km trek, climbing roughly 900 meters. The trail winds through forests, with gentle inclines interspersed with steeper zig-zags. Near the end, we cross a rope bridge adorned with prayer flags beside a cascading waterfall. A final set of steps leads to the monastery, where we'll explore its sacred spaces and enjoy breathtaking views. After retracing our steps down the mountain, we return to Paro for a farewell dinner, with the option to relax in a rejuvenating hot stone bath.

Day 7 Paro Departure

Time to say goodbye to Bhutan! Today you will be transferred to the airport for your onward flight. If you plan to stay in Bhutan longer, please remember that due to Bhutan's strict tourism policies, all arrangements, including hotel stays, must be booked through a travel company. If you need assistance with booking, please let us know, and we'll be happy to help.

 Breakfast

Disclaimer: The adventure cycling tours we operate often go beyond the beaten track, and the countries where we ride are not always predictable. Due to these reasons, it is occasionally necessary to reroute or update itineraries. Our guarantee is that we will not change a trip unless for safety or to improve it. Our listed hotels are always accurate at the time of writing, but should we have to change any hotel, it will always be for a similar or better one.

NUTS & BOLTS

Bikes

Bikes are included for this tour and are well-known makes of mountain bikes. E-bikes are available at additional charge though are limited in supply so please inquire early if you'd like to secure one.

Bike Repairs

Basic spares and tools are carried by the guide and on the support vehicle, though we cannot guarantee having spares for every conceivable problem. Carrying a basic tool kit, a spare tube and a pump while riding is recommended.

Safety

Wearing a helmet is required on all our biking adventures and is non negotiable. If you do not wear a helmet you will not be allowed to cycle. Your tour leader is trained in first aid and emergency rescue, but to a large degree you must be responsible for your own safety while riding. It is therefore compulsory that you take out travel insurance that will cover you for a mountain biking tour.

Guides

You will be led by a local English-speaking guide and if the group is 9 people or more we will add another guide to the tour. All our guides are well informed in the history, culture and religions of the area where you are biking and are skilled at passing that knowledge on to you. Your guide is also medically trained and an experienced cyclist, able to handle most minor repairs en route.

THE NITTY GRITTY

Passports and Visas

All nationalities require a passport for entry into Bhutan. Please ensure your passport is valid for at least 6 months from date of entry. Bhutan does not issue Visas before you arrive through their Embassies or Consulates. The only way to get a Visa is to get it on arrival to the country. However, you can't simply show up at their doorstep and be allowed in. You must apply with a tour operator and submit an application form for approval BEFORE you arrive. SpiceRoads will submit your application for approval to the Department of Tourism and their approval process takes a minimum of 1 week. For more information on Bhutan's visa requirements, please see here

IMPORTANT: On our "Mystical Bhutan" tour we will be crossing into India via the N.K Darranga border in Assam. An Indian e-VISA is NOT accepted at this border crossing, and you must get a tourist visa physically stamped into your passport from an Indian embassy before you come on the tour. See here for more details but please contact the Indian embassy/consulate closest to you for assistance and more information. Do not leave this to the last minute as it may take up to a week or more to complete.

Health

We recommend that you visit a travel medical doctor and ask about the following vaccinations: typhoid, polio, tetanus and hepatitis A. As there are some high altitude passes you may consider bringing Diamox – but please consult a physician first.

Weather

An umbrella, or light rain gear, should never be too far when traveling in Bhutan. During any month of the year it could, and will, rain. There are two optimal times of the year to travel in Bhutan. The months of March/April offers a period of warmer temperatures and bright skies. During August/-October is even more popular because of the cooler temperature and cloudless and crisp skies. Bhutan has a fairly mild climate year-round.

Accommodation

The hotels listed are our first choice and where we hope you will stay, however, during festivals or other major events there is a chance we will have to substitute another hotel.

Food

Meals are included as per the itinerary where B = breakfast, L = lunch, D = dinner. Meals are a mixture of Bhutanese and western cuisine, with the local food being mainly rice with vegetables with chili being used as a vegetable, not a flavoring – so beware! Local cheese is also popular and also quite tasty. Lunch will tend to vary between a packed lunch and some hot meals when local restaurants are available. Any special dietary requirements can also be catered for as well. Please let us know at the time of booking.

Drink

Keeping you completely hydrated is a job we take very seriously. Cold water, some energy-restoring local fruit and soft drinks are included in the tour price while riding. Soft drinks and other beverages during meals are not included. Beer is freely available everywhere, but is NOT included in the price.

Solo Travelers

SpiceRoads does not require you to pay a surcharge for travelling alone. We will arrange for you to share accommodation with another traveller of the same gender and if we can not match you up we will provide a single room at no extra charge. If you prefer not to share a single supplement is payable to guarantee your own room. The cost of the single supplement is listed above.

Extra Expenses

We recommend that you tuck away a few extra dollars, perhaps US$20 a day, for incidentals.

Money

The Bhutanese currency is the ngultrum and is pegged to the Indian rupee. As the rupee and ngultrum are traded at par, rupees are generally accepted in Bhutan and may be occasionally given as change. Bhutan is a cash economy. Don't count on using your Visa and Mastercard, but there is an America Express office in the capital, and Amex is accepted in a few rare instances. Your best option is to change dollars or euros into ngultrums at the airport as the exchange rate is the same as in the banks in town. You can also change your money at the hotels in Thimphu, but the rate is not as good. You'll mainly need money for handicraft souvenirs and drinks as everything else is included in the tour.
