TRIP PROFILE

We ride 619 km in seven cycling days. There are long 100-km days, and some hills to take on throughout the tour. We not only cover quite a lot of ground and take in some of Thailand's major sites, but we also visit some lesser known caves and waterfalls. Our days will be quite full and action-packed.

The trip is fully supported, and your guide's expert knowledge of the area and terrain means that you always know what is coming up in terms of distance and difficulty. This makes a tremendous difference, as does the constant supply of cold drinks and fresh fruit.

Suitability: This tour is ideal for experienced road cyclists comfortable with long, back-to-back riding days. The average daily distance is around 90 km, with the longest day being 130 km, but you always have the option to complete the distance in the support van. While there are hills to conquer each day, the ascents generally don't go on for more than 3-5 km, with gradients in the 3-5% range (though there are exceptions!), making it an accessible journey for those less inclined towards, well, too many inclines! For most, the main challenge of the tour is keeping up stamina over back-to-back riding days and cycling in the tropical heat. The pace is leisurely, with plenty of refreshment stops, so riders with less experience are more than welcome to join. The support vehicle is always nearby to offer refuge to any weary cyclists.

Biking Conditions: The majority of the route is along excellently paved roads well suited for road biking. We ride on quiet secondary roads as much as possible but there are regular stretches on busier main roads as well. Occasionally, we also veer onto narrow country lanes where potholes, road debris, and patches of gravel can be common. We have chosen the least busy roads possible but please be aware that traffic can be unpredictable and, especially near the cities and towns, unavoidable. While we have scheduled our departures to avoid the wettest months of year, showers can occur at any time. We generally ride rain or shine though, based on the guide's discretion or your level of comfort, modifications to the planned route can be made. It's all part of the adventure!

Day 1 Bangkok - Kanchanaburi

We pick you up from your Bangkok hotel in the morning and transfer approximately three hours west to the province of Kanchanaburi. Upon arrival in the provincial capital, we visit a fascinating museum that explores the history of Allied POWs in Thailand during the Second World War, when the country was under Japanese control. We then pay our respects at the nearby War

Cemetery, followed by a visit to the world-famous Bridge on the River Kwai, whose steely construction was immortalized in the classic 1950s film and remains in use by trains today. After checking into our riverside hotel, we fit our bikes and head out on a warm-up ride, giving us our first taste of the region's excellent roads, scenic farmlands, and jungle-clad mountains. In the evening, we gather for a welcome dinner.

Day 2 Kanchanaburi Loop

We begin our cycling adventure in earnest with a century ride through the lush countryside of Kanchanaburi. The route takes us across fertile plains nestled between the Khwae Yai and Khwae Noi rivers. The initial stretch leads us through a patchwork of agricultural fields, showcasing the region's major cash crops such as rice, sugarcane, and cassava. At around the 33 km mark, we reach the 13th-century temple ruins of Prasat Muang Singh, once the westernmost outpost of the mighty Khmer Empire that ruled from Cambodia. The serene grounds offer a perfect spot to pause and soak in the history before we continue northward. Crossing the Khwae Noi River, we encounter a 5 km ascent up a forested ridge — a challenging yet rewarding climb. The refreshing descent that follows gives way to a final 40 km of flat terrain, where we pass by local Buddhist temples, schools, and an expanse of fields, weaving closer to and further from the gently flowing Khwae Yai River. The afternoon is yours to unwind — whether by relaxing at the pool or indulging in a rejuvenating Thai massage.

Day 3 Kanchanaburi - Srinakarin Dam

Today, we follow the Khwae Yai River upstream to where it meets the massive Srinakarin Dam. We begin with a ride through familiar scenes of Kanchanaburi's agrarian landscape, but as we push forward, the jungle-clad Tenasserim Hills, which have so far loomed in the distance, draw ever closer. By the 35 km mark, we reach the southern edge of Erawan National Park, a vast tropical rainforest teeming with wildlife and greenery. We skirt the edge of the park on a quiet, mildly undulating road that continues along the river. The day's main challenge comes at around 63 km, where a 4 km climb with an 8% average gradient tests our strength and may tempt some to push out of the saddle! After a quick breather at the top, we descend toward the shores of the beautiful Srinakarin Dam, one of Thailand's largest manmade reservoirs, named after the revered former Queen Mother. We end the day at a lakeside resort, where you can take a dip in the lake, enjoy an afternoon paddle in a kayak, or simply relax and take in the views across the calm waters.

Day 4 Srinakarin Dam - Erawan Waterfall – Kanchanaburi

Our ride this morning takes us through the fields and forests bordering the southeastern edge of Srinakarin Dam. After approximately 20 km, we reach an arm of the expansive reservoir and board a ferry to cross to the other side. Once ashore, a 5 km climb — steep toward the end — leads us along a quiet road, cresting a hill before descending to follow the shoreline, offering stunning views of the water. Retracing our route through farmlands, we head south, tackling a challenging 6 km climb followed by a steep, exhilarating descent into Erawan National Park (you'll remember it as a climb from the day before!). Erawan is home to one of Thailand's most iconic waterfalls, the seven-tiered Erawan Waterfall, nestled in lush jungle. After parking our bikes, we take a break to explore the falls, where, time permitting, you can hike to the upper tiers and swim in emerald pools, where small fish work their magic, exfoliating your feet. In the mid-afternoon, we transfer about 45 minutes to our overnight resort, back on the plains of the Khwae Yai River, where we'll be based for two nights.

Day 5 Kanchanaburi Rest Day

After four solid days in the saddle, a well-earned rest day is in order. Based at a lovely riverside resort with expansive gardens, the choice is yours on how to spend the day. Relax by the pool, indulge in a massage, or go bamboo rafting on the River Khwae. Lunch and dinner are not included today, so you can choose from the resort's offerings. If you'd like to explore the area, just speak with the guide, and arrangements can be made.

Day 6 Kanchanaburi – Khwae Noi River

Back in the saddle, we head north, riding into the valley of the Khwae Noi River, nestled between Erawan and Sai Yok National Parks. Once traversed by Thailand's infamous "Death Railway," the train line now ends at Nam Tok station, which we'll pass around the 30 km mark. Continuing along the valley's main road for another 20 km, we arrive at Hellfire Pass — a series of railway cuttings built by Allied POWs during World War II, now a powerful memorial and outdoor museum. Take your time exploring the exhibits before hiking a few hundred metres to the haunting Konyu Cutting. After this reflective stop, we backtrack 20 km, cross the Khwae Noi River, and follow quiet backroads to tonight's resort, surrounded by lush jungle, misty hills, and cliffs hanging over the river. Today's ride features undulating terrain, including three climbs under 3 km with average gradients of 3-4%.

Day 7 Khwae Noi River - Suan Phueng

At just over 130 km, today marks the longest ride of the tour, but don't worry — you can cycle as much as you like, with the support vehicle ready to assist. The first 70 km involve a steady effort south along the plains of the Khwae Noi River, with some mild undulations along the way. After another 20 km, we enter Ratchaburi Province, cycling through its remote western region near the low-lying mountains that form the border with Myanmar. We won't venture too deep into the hills, instead sticking to rural roads in the lowlands and making good time as we pass vast agricultural lands — growing everything from rubber to mangoes — Buddhist temples, small towns, and villages. The final stretch trends gradually uphill, testing our endurance before we arrive in Suan Phueng, a quiet corner of western Thailand that rarely sees foreign tourists, where we'll spend the night at a simple yet comfortable Thai-style rural retreat.

Phu Pha Phung Resort Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 8 Suan Phueng - Mae Klong - Bangkok

Our final ride takes us from the rugged western mountains into the lush lowlands of the Mae Klong Delta. We descend gently toward sea level, bidding farewell to the rolling hills that have defined much of our journey. At 60 km, we enter Ratchaburi's provincial capital, navigating busier streets before following a peaceful road along the Mae Klong River. This vital waterway branches out into a network of canals that nourish coconut and banana plantations, as well as orchards filled with a variety of fruits and vegetables. We finish the ride at a riverside restaurant, where we enjoy a celebratory lunch before transferring back to Bangkok. On the way, we'll stop at the bustling Damnoen Saduak Floating Market — Thailand's largest and most colorful. It's crowded, noisy, and definitely touristy, but great fun! The drive to Bangkok takes 2-3 hours, depending on traffic, and we drop you off at your post-tour hotel. Please let us know if you require assistance with post-tour hotel bookings or airport transfers.

Disclaimer: The adventure cycling tours we operate often go beyond the beaten track, and the countries where we ride are not always predictable. Due to these reasons, it is occasionally necessary to reroute or update itineraries. Our guarantee is that we will not change a trip unless for safety or to improve it. Our listed hotels are always accurate at the time of writing, but should we have to change any hotel, it will always be for a similar or better one.

NUTS & BOLTS

Bikes

Because some people can't imagine going on a trip without their own beloved bicycle, we do not provide them as part of this tour. However, you can hire bikes locally for the price listed in the tour pricing section. If you bring your own bike, please make sure it is a road bike in good mechanical order.

Bike Repairs

Basic spares and tools are carried by the guide and on the support vehicle, though we cannot guarantee having spares for every conceivable problem. Carrying a basic tool kit, a spare tube and a pump while riding is recommended.

Safety

Wearing a helmet is required on all our biking adventures and is non negotiable. If you do not wear a helmet you will not be allowed to cycle. Your tour leader is trained in first aid and emergency rescue, but to a large degree you must be responsible for your own safety while riding. It is therefore compulsory that you take out travel insurance that will cover you for a mountain biking tour.

Guides

You will be led by a local English-speaking guide and if the group is 9 people or more we will add another guide to the tour. All our guides are well informed in the history, culture and religions of the area where you are biking and are skilled at passing that knowledge on to you. Your guide is also medically trained and an experienced cyclist, able to handle most minor repairs en route.

THE NITTY GRITTY

Passports and Visas

Visitors from 93 countries can enter Thailand for 60 days without applying for a visa. See here if your country is on the list. If you do not hold a passport from one of these countries please contact the Thai embassy or consulate nearest to you about applying for a visa. If you intend to stay for more than 60 days you will also need a visa. Please check this page for more details and the latest updates. Please ensure you hold a passport with at least 6 months of validity remaining. You will need to show proof of an onward flight out of Thailand to be eligible for the visa on arrival. If you do not possess a ticket proving your exit from Thailand within 60 days of arrival, you may be denied boarding.

Health

We recommend that you visit a travel medical doctor and ask about the following vaccinations: typhoid, polio, tetanus and hepatitis A. A certificate for Yellow Fever is required when arriving from an infected area within six days.

Weather

Thailand generally has a tropical climate with fairly high humidity. The North and Central region have a tropical climate with fairly high humidity. Northeast Thailand has a humid hot and dry weather alternatively with medium rain while the coastal areas of the east is humid and hot with intermittent rain. The South of Thailand has a tropical climate with fairly high humidity.

There are three seasons: from March to June it is hot and dry, with temperatures between 27°C/80 F and 40°C/104 F, with night temperatures in the 20s. The rainy season is from July to October, but temperatures are slightly lower, because of the effect of the rain. During this time it will not rain continuously, but in sharp bursts, and the sun can come out quickly. The cooler season is from October to February, with average temperatures between 20°C/68 F and 30°C/86 F.

Food

Meals are included as per the itinerary where B = breakfast, L = lunch, D = dinner. Most meals are local and feature noodles, rice, curries, and soups. Any special dietary requirements can also be catered for as well. Please let us know at the time of booking.

Drink

Keeping you completely hydrated is a job we take very seriously. Cold water, some energy-restoring local fruit, and soft drinks are included in the tour price while riding. Soft drinks and other beverages during meals are not included. Beer is freely available everywhere but is NOT included in the price.

Solo Travelers

SpiceRoads does not require you to pay a surcharge for traveling alone. We will arrange for you to share accommodation with another traveler of the same gender and if we cannot match you up we will provide a single room at no extra charge. If you prefer not to share a single supplement is payable to guarantee your own room. The cost of the single supplement is listed above.

Extra Expenses

We recommend that you tuck away a few extra dollars, perhaps US$20 per day, for incidentals.

Money

The Thai currency is the baht. ATMs, which are abundant, are the easiest ways to get Thai baht. Have a supply of US dollars in cash on hand, just in case your card doesn't work. Banks or the rarer private moneychangers offer the best foreign-exchange rates. Credit cards are accepted in big cities and resort hotels but you'll need baht for family-run guesthouses or restaurants.
