TRIP PROFILE

This tour covers 547 km over 7 days of riding in Central Portugal. The first 5 cycling days cover mountainous and plateaus with steady climbs and stunning views. The remaining days are spent along lower relief areas through picturesque valleys and rural areas. The last cycling day is mostly along the rugged Atlantic coast with thrilling ascents and descents.

The trip is fully supported, and your guide's expert knowledge of the area and terrain means that you always know what is coming up in terms of distance and difficulty. This makes a tremendous difference, as does the constant supply of water and refreshments along the way.

Suitability: This is a challenging tour designed for cyclists with a high level of physical fitness comfortable on hilly and mountainous terrain. Fitness will be a huge asset on consistent 5 to 10 km climbs throughout. The tour is guided and fully supported, and a transfer is possible for those that find the riding too difficult. As the tour visits many scenic villages, towns, ruins, and natural areas, riding is not the only focus and a fair amount of time will be spent off-saddle to explore these fascinating and picturesque places.

Biking Conditions: We ride an average of 79 km a day with average climbs of 1345 m. The roads are 100% tarmac and overall in good condition. Most climbs are steady with 6-8% grade but there will be some short but more steep climbs. To compensate there are also long and exciting descents, of course!

Day 1 Arrive in Guarda

We meet in Guarda, Portugal's highest city (1,056 m) located to the northeast of the Serra da Estrela Mountain range in the country's interior. Guarda is easily reached via bus or train from Porto (2.5 hours) or Lisbon (3.5 hours) - we can also arrange private transfers at additional cost if you prefer. Today we'll do bike fittings and enjoy a welcome dinner together. If you arrive earlier in the day, feel free to explore Guarda and check out the impressive cathedral and other historic sites.

Day 2 Guarda - Manteigas

We begin our road biking adventure on a literal high note as we head into Portugal's most mountainous terrain. We begin with an undulating rural ride taking us across a plateau where the landscape is characterized by granite rocks strewn across the farmland, pastures, and forests of pine and chestnut trees. Many tightly-packed, small historic villages are dotted along the route, the most fascinating of which being Sorhelo where granite houses are enclosed by the fortifications of a 13th-century castle built on a boulder-laden hilltop. Another few km onwards and we find the remains of a mystery-shrouded tower known as the Centum Cellas which was built in the days of the Roman Empire. From here we begin climbing up the glacial valley of the Zêzere River, following its meandering course surrounded by steep, forested slopes and endless views of the mountains, including the towering peak of the Torre, Portugal's highest point at 1,993 m. We spend the night near the town of Manteigas where we dine on regional mountain cuisine. Make sure to sample the Serra da Estrela cheese, made from sheep's milk and a point of pride for the local communities here.

Day 3 Manteigas - Seia

Prepare yourself for some of Portugal's most spectacular natural scenery. Starting from Manteigas, we ride along switchbacks that wind up and down the western slopes of the Serra da Estrela, culminating in a challenging ascent to Portela do Folgosinho, a viewpoint sitting at an impressive 1,200 m. As we catch our breath, we soak in the 360-degree view of the vast surrounding landscape which has been gouged and sculpted by glaciers during the last Ice Age. We then have a refreshing descent down to lower elevations, along the way passing through the medieval village Folgosinho with its unique circular walled citadel perched on a hilltop overlooking the valley. From here on out the ride becomes decidedly less wild and more rural as we crisscross through sheep and goat pastures, olive groves, and the proud towns that lie in the shadows of the mountains. We'll cruise through the lively streets of Gouveia before arriving in the town of Seia where we spend the night.

Day 4 Seia - Piodão

Today's riding distance is the shortest on the tour but the route packs a strong punch with lengthy ascents and descents as we head south along the mountains. After leaving Seia behind, we spend 21 km winding our way uphill along roads that cut through Old World Mediterranean pine forests. This is followed by a delightful 13 km descent with thrilling twists and turns, made all the better with fabulous views over the rolling hills that stretch endlessly into the distance. As we reach the valley floor we'll stop in the photogenic riverside village of Vide and rest our legs before another gradual, lengthy climb into a new mountain range: the Serra do Açor. The landscape here doesn't seem to have an inch of level ground and, as a result, the villages and farms are chiseled into the steep slopes, showcasing centuries' of local ingenuity in adapting to the jagged terrain. Most impressive of these villages is Piodão, where narrow, cobblestoned alleys follow the contours of the steep slope harboring a maze of houses built entirely out of schist stones. Spending the night in this remote and storied corner of Portugal will be a treat.

Day 5 Piódão - Miranda do Corvo

The ride today marks a geographical shift as we gradually descend down from the mountains and into the valleys of Coimbra District. While we'll continue to be challenged by some ascents, overall the relief becomes lower with each kilometer pedaled. Rising from within Piódão we begin with a scenic ride along curving mountain ridges flanked by towering windmills. As we reach lower elevations we are greeted by the Ceira River and ride along its deep, narrow valley where the scenery is dominated by dense forest cover occasionally interrupted by quaint red tile roofed villages. We cross the river in the village of Gois and divert from its path as we continue onwards to the town of Lousã which lies in a neighboring valley. Here we visit 11th-century medieval castle ruins nestled amongst colorful woodlands, providing a mysterious and tranquil ambiance. The ride concludes with a less than 10 km flat stretch to the town of Miranda do Corvo.

Day 6 Miranda do Corvo - Tomar

Today's ride is gentler compared to the previous days, allowing us to take a leisurely pace as we take in stunning historical sites and traverse the wide, open countryside. We begin with an easy 10 km rural ride south to the town of Penela where we stop to explore the impressive ruins of a medieval castle built as a defense against the Moors. We then enter a terrain of undulating hills blanketed by olive groves and climb to the top of Serra de Alvaiázere, the highest point in the valley. The last 30 km of the ride take us through some of Portugal's most fertile farmland and towards the end we connect with the Nabão River, which we'll follow into the historic town of Tomar. Founded by the Knights Templar in the 12th century, Tomar played a vital role as a spiritual, military, and artistic center in medieval and renaissance Portugal. The UNESCO World Heritage awarded townscape and its many architectural feats – in particular the Convent of Christ and Templar Castle – are the perfect place for us to saddle-off and enjoy the afternoon.

Day 7 Tomar - Alcobaça

Departing Tomar, we first cycle past the Convent of Christ before reaching the town's outskirts where we'll encounter the remnants of an impressive, stone-arched aqueduct. We carry onwards along predominantly flat township roads, zipping past heavily cultivated farmlands bordered by estates and villages. Eventually, at around 20 km, we'll begin to see a massif jutting out of the ground - this is the Serra de Aire Natural Park, an area of striking limestone formations. The relief rises and we find ourselves climbing yet again! Parts of the roads here are lined with low-rising stone walls, making for a ruggedly picturesque visual pressed against the background of the chalky hills. Upon coming down on the west side of the Serra de Aire we'll roll right into the town of Porto de Mós. Here we find a battle-hardened medieval castle with towers covered in green ceramic tiles. We'll take a quick rest to appreciate the views from the top before completing the last 20 km to Alcobaça. This splendid little city is graced with a grand Gothic-style Monastery commissioned by Portugal's first monarch in the 12th-century. It is a UNESCO World Heritage site and one of Portugal's most treasured national monuments.

Day 8 Alcobaça - Óbidos

The feeling of finally reaching the shores of Portugal's stunning coastline is a rite of passage for anyone cycling in the country! On today's ride we head out from Alcobaça, enjoying a stretch of inland rural riding along farms, forests, villages and towns. The salty ocean air may begin to hit us and, at 35 km, we arrive on the so-called "Silver Coast" in a spectacular fashion: by descending steeply down to the seaside with views over wind-swept cliffs facing the vast and powerful ocean. We'll continue up and down along the coastline, taking in panoramas of beaches, bays, lagoons, cliffs and coastal towns. We'll pause to admire the beauty of Lagoa de Óbidos, Portugal's largest salt water lagoon surrounded on both sides by rugged, wave-battered headlands. The road bordering the lagoon makes for some scenic cycling and we conclude the ride with a few km of rural roads where we'll be able to see the fairytale-like Castle of Óbidos majestically perched on its hilltop. Óbidos is one of Portugal's best preserved medieval towns; the perfect setting for our last night. How about toasting to our epic journey with a glass of ginjinha (locally produced sour cherry liqueur)?

Day 9 Óbidos - Lisbon

Disclaimer: The adventure cycling tours we operate often go beyond the beaten track, and the countries where we ride are not always predictable. Due to these reasons, it is occasionally necessary to reroute or update itineraries. Our guarantee is that we will not change a trip unless for safety or to improve it. Our listed hotels are always accurate at the time of writing, but should we have to change any hotel, it will always be for a similar or better one.

NUTS & BOLTS

Bikes

Because some people can't imagine going on a trip without their own beloved bicycle, we do not provide them as part of this tour. However, you can hire bikes locally for the price listed in the tour pricing section.

If you bring your own bike, please make sure it is a road bike in good mechanical order.

Bike Repairs

Basic spares and tools are carried by the guide and on the support vehicle, though we cannot guarantee having spares for every conceivable problem. Carrying a basic tool kit, a spare tube and a pump while riding is recommended.

Safety

Wearing a helmet is required on all our biking adventures and is non negotiable. If you do not wear a helmet you will not be allowed to cycle. Your tour leader is trained in first aid and emergency rescue, but to a large degree you must be responsible for your own safety while riding. It is therefore compulsory that you take out travel insurance that will cover you for a mountain biking tour.

Guides

You will be led by a local English-speaking guide and if the group is 9 people or more we will add another guide to the tour. All our guides are well informed in the history, culture and religions of the area where you are biking and are skilled at passing that knowledge on to you. Your guide is also medically trained and an experienced cyclist, able to handle most minor repairs en route.

THE NITTY GRITTY

Passports and Visas

Visa requirements for Portugal vary depending on the traveler's nationality and the purpose of their visit. Citizens of the European Union (EU) and the European Economic Area (EEA) do not need a visa and can freely enter and stay in Portugal. Additionally, citizens from certain countries like the United States, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand can enter Portugal for tourism or business purposes for up to 90 days within a 180-day period without a visa. For many other nationalities a visa is generally required to enter Portugal. Visitors need to apply for a Schengen Visa, which allows travel within the Schengen Area, including Portugal. See here for more information.

Health

See here for recommendations and detailed information.

Weather

Portugal has a Mediterranean climate with mild, rainy winters and hot, dry summers. The country enjoys plenty of sunshine throughout the year, with temperatures averaging around 15°C (59°F) in winter and 25°C (77°F) in summer. The northern region experiences more rainfall and cooler temperatures, while the south has a drier and warmer climate. Coastal areas benefit from refreshing sea breezes, while inland regions can be hotter. Overall, Portugal's climate is generally pleasant, making it an attractive destination for sunseekers and outdoor enthusiasts.

Food

Meals are included as per the itinerary where B = breakfast, L = lunch, D = dinner.

Portuguese food combines fresh ingredients, bold flavors, and a delightful blend of Mediterranean and Atlantic influences. Seafood plays a prominent role, with dishes like bacalhau (salted cod) and sardines being popular. Meat lovers can savor dishes such as grilled meats and cozido à portuguesa (a hearty meat stew). Portuguese cuisine also features delicious pastries like pastéis de nata (custard tarts) and regional desserts like arroz doce (rice pudding). Don't miss out on trying local specialties like caldo verde (kale soup), feijoada (bean stew), and the famous port wine.

Any special dietary requirements can also be catered for as well. Please let us know at the time of booking.

Drink

Keeping you completely hydrated is a job we take very seriously. Water and a regular supply of refreshments are included in the tour price while riding. Soft drinks and other beverages during meals are not included. But you may also want to bring electrolyte in powder or tablet form. Alcoholic drinks are available everywhere, but are NOT included in the price.

Solo Travelers

SpiceRoads does not require you to pay a surcharge for travelling alone. We will arrange for you to share accommodation with another traveller of the same gender and if we can not match you up we will provide a single room at no extra charge. If you prefer not to share a single supplement is payable to guarantee your own room. The cost of the single supplement is listed above.

Extra Expenses

We recommend that you tuck away a few extra Euros for possible incidentals that might arise. It is always wise to have some paper currency in case of ATM absence or credit card problems. This will save you a lot of unnecessary worries. It is also customary to tip local tour guides and drivers; however, the amount you give should be dependent on the level of service you receive. As a general guide we suggest that €5-10 per person per day is appropriate.

Visa and Mastercard are widely accepted throughout the country, but that is not a guarantee, especially in mom & pop shops in rural areas.

A Note on Portugal's Tourist Tax: The tourist tax in Portugal varies depending on the region and the type of accommodation. The fee is between 1 - 5 Euros per person/per night. This amount needs to be paid directly and in cash - hence why we do not include it in the tour price and you will be expected to pay this where necessary. See here for more information.

Money

The currency used in Portugal is the Euro (€).
